

Consumer - Your Right to cancel

I have not met with you at our offices, so the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 apply to this letter of engagement. This means you have the right to cancel your instructions to me within fourteen days of from the date you agree to retain our services. You can cancel your instructions by contacting me by post or email, clearly stating that you wish to cancel your instructions.

If you would like me to commence work on your matter immediately and/or within the above fourteen day period, please sign and return this letter of engagement immediately by post or fax or email at the contact addresses above. By doing so, you acknowledge that if you cancel this contract you will be charged for the work done and expenses incurred up to the date you cancel. You will lose the right to cancel if I have started work at your request and have fully performed our services by the time you cancel.

Effects of cancellation

If you cancel this contract, I will reimburse to you all payments received from you unless you asked me to start work during the cancellation period (see below 'Asking me to start work during the cancellation period'). I will make the reimbursement without undue delay and not later than 14 days after the day on which I am informed about your decision to cancel this contract and using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement itself.

Request to start work during cancellation period

I / We have read and accept the Terms of Business and instruct Alexander Alistair John Robertson-Gopffarth to start work on the matter before the expiry of the 14 day cancellation period.

I / We understand and accept that should I / we then cancel this contract I / we will be liable for any costs incurred for time spent and work undertaken and any disbursements incurred on my / our behalf until I / we told you that we wished to cancel within the cancellation period.

I / We understand and accept that I / we will lose the right to cancel and will have to pay in full once the contract had been fully performed (i.e. you complete the work) even if this happens within the cancellation period.
